BUILDINGS AND MONUMENTS, MODERN AND MEDIEVAL.

Being Illustrations of the Edifices of the Nineteenth Century, and of some of the Architectural Works of the Middle Ages.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The bold and effective outlines which have now appeared for some years past in the weekly sheets of our excellent contemporary the Builder, must be familiar to those who are not unacquainted with Architecture.

The change and handsome revision of the principal parts which have appeared from time to time in the Builder is an extraordinary addition to its already valuable contents.

The idea of republishing in a separate and handsome form some of the best architectural subjects that have been given in the Builder was a good one.

This is a happy idea, most gallantly carried out. Fine drawings and a deep yellow paper give a most charming effect to the volumes, and besides the illustrations are well arranged in a literary and artistic manner.
